

Shri Manoj Kumar Srivastava joins OPaL as President

Shri Manoj Kumar Srivastava, who has joined our organisation ONGC Petro Additions Limited (OPaL) as President on 15.03.2017.

Shri Srivastava, a Masters in Chemical Technology (with specialisation in Plastic Technology) from HBTI, Kanpur of 1985 batch is having more than 32 years of experience in diversified technologies of petrochemical operations. He started his career with Oil India Ltd and worked there for 5 years before moving to Reliance Industries Limited.

He has rich experience of large size petrochemical complex from inception to production stage which includes conceptualization, project execution, pre-commissioning, start-up and plant stabilization and process optimization. Shri Srivastava is a certified Energy Manager, certified black belt for six sigma and have two patents to his credit. A trained and groomed professional on Corporate Management from AOTS, Japan has also extensively worked in the areas of benchmarking, new product development, people development, mentoring, coaching for developing leaders.

Prior to joining OPaL he was working with M/S Petrorabigh in Saudi Arabia and was heading all upstream units of phase II namely, Naphtha Complex, Aroma Complex (Paraxylene & Benzene), MTBE unit, Isobutylene Unit, Methyl Methacrylate, cumene, phenol, metathesis units, etc.

With his rich and diversified experience in Operational excellence and Leadership roles along with in-depth understanding of petrochemicals environment, OPaL will achieve its Vision. We wish him great success in his new assignment as President, OPaL.